in speaking of art we often contrast the useful or mechanical arts with the fine arts by these terms we denote the difference between the arts which are used in making such things as are necessary and useful in civilized life and the arts by which ornamental and beautiful things are made the fine arts are architecture sculpture painting poetry and music and though we could live if none of these existed yet life would be far from the pleasant experience that it is often made to be through the enjoyment of these arts this text explores the creative techniques and artistic achievements of artists sculptors and architects from ancient to modern times famous works of art are shown and the political and personal events that gave rise to them are examined based on a world history of art this volume integrates the story of art into a cohesive narrative and encourages the reader to experience a work of art rather than merely learn about it consentrates chiefly on painting and sculpture but does include some architecture and minor arts
